DANNY EASTWOOD

Solo Exhibitio

Photography is often a literal transposition of reality, but it can also blur boundaries.

These images aim to confound the viewer. Submerged, reflected & refracted; the figure is presented in an almost abstract way. The pared back form becomes sculptural with the subtle modulations of light and motion.

These are transitory moments of movement - the figure and the water perfectly meeting each other in a moment of flux.

Many thanks to the models: Sorelle, Elysia, Taryn, Scott, Bec, Brielle, Kane, Rhys, Alexandra, Bronte, Rachael and Kate.

Special thanks to Ben Crick, Selena Simpson, Simon Harsent, Hannah Nixon, Ari Mojdeh and Ollie Quirk. All images available in these two sizes and are Archival Pigment Prints on Hahnemühle FineArt Paper.
